

Our Story...

Tremendous Trivia Night Productions (est. 2016) is the largest company of its kind in B.C. We now host over 600 trivia nights a year at bars, pubs, restaurants, and private functions. We also provide customized quizzes for fundraisers, corporate events, private parties and team-building functions. We have been told countless times that we have the best quality trivia nights found anywhere!

Our Tremendous Trivia Nights are proven to produce increased revenue on slower weekday nights, bring in new, more educated customers with deep pockets who otherwise wouldn't patronize your pub, and increase pub exposure through marketing and promotion. Groups that compete at trivia stay longer and eat/drink more than usual customers.

We are laser-focused on producing the best trivia night experience ever. The shows include 4 rounds of questions projected on the big screen, 2 music rounds, warm-up and mini-games activities, and an engaging host. It is designed to provide fun for all ages and abilities.

Tremendous Trivia is configured to host a trivia event wherever you are located in B.C. (or Canada!), as long as we have a trained emcee. The trivia packages are delivered to the host on a share drive, and the shows are projected from the laptop onto the screens in the bar via projector or HDMI cable. We can supply the audio equipment as well, if necessary.

For our weekly trivia clients, we also host specialty theme nights throughout the year, such as Harry Potter, 90s night, Game of Thrones, Friends, and many more. For these events, instead of you paying us our regular rate, we sell tickets, and you get 100% of food/beverage revenue. Everyone wins!

Because we are a trivia company with a large social media following and marketing outreach, it gives your business the opportunity to gain exposure beyond your base clientele, and to promote your other events during the weekly trivia night. We would also be willing to host special trivia nights at the pub, which routinely sell out and provide exposure.

Our rates are very reasonable for pub entertainment and our testimonials praise our professionalism, reliability and customer service. Call any of our client pubs (listed on our website) if you want to talk to another manager or owner about our trivia nights.

Our rates, depending on the size and location of the venue, are usually $250-325 a week. Sometimes we offer a discount for the first few weeks, as we establish regular clientele. We usually agree on a six-month commitment. Also, once we agree to host trivia at your venue, we will not approach any of your local competitors – you will have exclusivity in your area.

Fill out the Contact Form on the webpage, and we'd love to partner with you to bring Tremendous Trivia to your venue. Thank you!
